

Instructor Course with eLearning

A New Career filled Adventure and Fun!

As a PADI 5 Star Instructor Development Dive Resort, Jack's Diving Locker is the place to go for your professional training and certifications. At Jack's Diving Locker, you will experience the exhilaration of becoming a pro while training in tropical paradise. The Instructor Development Course (IDC) includes both the Assistant Instructor (AI) and Open Water Scuba Instructor (OWSI) courses. During the IDC, candidates will work on knowledge development, confined water skills, and open water skills in workshops and by doing presentations. In addition to the IDC, candidates can do 2 days of complimentary boat diving as part of their course to observe what the Pros do. A PADI Open Water Scuba Instructor is a leader in diving education and teaches a variety of PADI scuba certification courses from beginners to advanced levels. IDC candidates prepare for the Instructor Examination (IE), a test administered by PADI. The Jack's Diving Locker IDC schedule is for candidates participating in the PADI eLearning option. Assistant Instructor course available during the IDC. Crossover Instructors welcome.
